Mr. John F. Ring
Chairman

RE: Invitation for U.S. Labor Union Leaders to Visit Taiwan

Dear Chairman Ring,

On behalf of the Taiwanese Ministry of Labor, I would like to extend to you our sincere invitation to visit Taiwan from November 25 to December 1. Taiwan would like you to be part of a delegation of labor Commissioners (Directors and Secretaries) from state level labor departments and federal labor agencies across the U.S. The purpose of this visit is to enhance mutual understanding and exchange ideas regarding cultural, economic, and particularly, labor affairs.

The Ministry of Labor anticipates this visiting delegation to have around 10 members in total. I have attached the tentative agenda and other information for your consideration. Delegates will meet at the Los Angeles International Airport to depart for Taipei together via China Airlines flight CI 0007 in Business Class. All necessary expenses for this trip will be covered by the Government of Taiwan, which include meals, lodging and transportation in Taiwan, a round trip international flight (business class) as well as a U.S. domestic flight (economy class) to and from Los Angeles, California.

Should you accept this invitation, please send me a confirmation letter (e-mail, hard copy or fax), a copy of your passport, a completed questionnaire, and a bio with a photo. We will book the flight for you from your city of origin to Los Angeles, as well as Los Angeles to Taipei. We hope to receive your confirmation by early September. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me directly at 202-686-6400 (Office), 202-558-8324 (Cell), 202-363-6294 (Fax), or via email at jason611@mol.gov.tw.

I hope that you will be able to join the delegation and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Jason Huang
Senior Labor Officer

Subject: September 24 Dinner

I'm excited to report that we've landed on the legendary Moshulu, the world's oldest and largest square rigged vessel still afloat, for dinner with the Chairman on Monday night. Go to the website for its interesting history – <http://www.moshulu.com/>

(b) (6) and I checked out a bunch of places suggested by some of you and staff at the Regional Office. After considering those that had separate rooms and the prices, it came down to Maggiano's or the Moshulu. Both were priced about the same and Maggiano's was closer to the conference location. However, with wonderful Italian food locations always nearby wherever we live, it seemed to us that most of us would probably prefer to catch up with each other on a deck for drinks and then have dinner in the belly of an old ship. All hands hoay!

After extensive back and forth, the Moshulu came through with an outstanding 3-course menu, with entrée choices of chicken, crab cakes, filet mignon (which they removed the $8 per person surcharge for) and vegetarian. In addition, they threw in a free drink (alcohol, wine, soda) for no extra charge. See attached. Additional drinks can be ordered at the table with cash. They know that we'll be above 20 people, but priced it for convenience at that number. The price per person will be $57.20 total. I'd prefer checks instead of cash since I may be hauling it all with me on Tuesday to my travel assignment.

The restaurant is flexible but I told them to expect us for dinner about 7 p.m., which gives us enough time to leave the conference at 5 p.m. and either go back to your hotel or go straight to the ship and have an hour or more to get together on the deck for conversation and drinks before dinner. I'm told that the pier is a 25 minute walk from the Loews Philadelphia or a few minutes by car.

Another note about also having our own breakout session during the conference, perhaps during the 10:30 session, which would lead us right into lunch. The hotel does not have any other space available but I've been checking around. The hotel told me that we could try to meet in the lobby but it might or might not be quiet enough. One possibility is the Hard Rock Café across the street. They don't open till 11 a.m. but would let us in before then if we want. Another is to take cabs/ubers to the Regional Office, get sandwiches, etc. All ideas welcome.

Last, but not least, we have an addition to the list since my last email – Kim – who was inadvertently left off the training office's list to Malissa because she had the audacity to register late after returning from (b) (6) Wait till she fills you in on that!

The itinerary/receipt constitutes the passenger ticket for the purposes of article 3 of the Warsaw convention, except where the carrier delivers to the passenger another document complying with the requirements of article 3. Passengers on a journey involving an ultimate destination or a stop in a country other than the country of departure are advised that international treaties known as the Montreal convention, or its predecessor, the Warsaw convention, including its amendments (the Warsaw convention system), may apply to the entire journey, including any portion thereof within a country. For such passengers, the applicable treaty, including special contracts of carriage embodied in any applicable tariffs, governs and may limit the liability of the carrier. These conventions govern and may limit the liability of air carriers for death or bodily injury or loss of or damage to baggage, and for delay.

Data Protection Notice: Your personal data will be processed in accordance with the applicable carrier's privacy policy and, if your booking is made via a reservation system provider ("GDS"), with its privacy policy. You should read this documentation, which applies to your booking and specifies, for example, how your personal data is collected, stored, used, disclosed and transferred. RE: Ohio State Bar Association – National Labor Relations Seminar

Dear Chairman Ring,

I am writing in my capacity as Chair of the Ohio State Bar Association Labor and Employment Section. In conjunction with Regions 8 and 9 of the National Labor Relations Board, each year the OSBA Labor and Employment Section holds an advanced National Labor Relations Board seminar in December for its members. In past years, we have had NLRB Chairman and General Counsel speak at the seminar. Beyond the live audience we will have in Columbus at the OSBA Headquarters, the seminar is simulcast at various locations throughout the State of Ohio. The date for this year's seminar is December 4, 2018. The seminar will last approximately from 8:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. at the OSBA Headquarters in Columbus, Ohio. Would your schedule permit you to speak at this year's Conference? I should note that OSBA pays for all travel, lodging, and other related expenses. Finally, the Directors of Regions 8 and 9, Allen Binstock and Garey Lindsay, both are expected to be present and participate in the seminar as well as members of their professional staffs. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions about the seminar.

Sincerely,

G. Roger King
Chair, Labor and Employment Section

John is speaking at 9:00 and Peter is speaking on a panel from 11:15 to 12:15, after which lunch will be served. Given both of your schedules, I arranged for them to approach you following Peter's speech as attendees are being seated for lunch. They have a room nearby where you will be able to talk. They have promised me they will feed you, so you will not miss lunch entirely!

If you need to contact them for any reason, Joe D'Andrea's cell phone number is (b) (6).

Below is an excerpt from their original email regarding the interview:

The purpose of the interview would be to write a summary of our discussion in our Labor & Employment Newsletter, similar to the summary we wrote of our interview with former Chairman Pearce and former General Counsel Griffin from December 2016 (see the attached article). We would, of course, send you the summary for your comment, edit, and approval before we published anything.

I am happy to follow-up with any questions.

Subject: LACBA Symposium - scheduling a group phone call

Importance: High

Good morning,

Thank you for agreeing to be a panelist on the traditional labor law panel. On behalf of the Los Angeles County Bar Association's Labor and Employment Section, we thank you, in advance, for your hard-work and dedication to this panel. We are honored to work with each of you!

Thomas Rimbach, a Field Attorney from Region 21, and I are the shepherds for your panel. As shepherds, our main role is to facilitate information to and from the LACBA Symposium Planning Committee. Also, while you are presenting during your afternoon breakout session on March 5, 2019, Thomas and I will keep track of the time for you so that you do not exceed our panel's allotted presentation time (approximately 2:45 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.).

Our first order of business as a team is to arrange a group conference call for our panel so that we can discuss/complete the following tasks by Monday, December 17, 2018:

- 1) finalize the topics for discussion (what you present on as a group, with some likely input from the Committee, is your choice);
- 2) come up with a short, descriptive (but interesting) title for our session; and
- 3) propose a 2-3 sentence blurb for the Symposium's advertising brochure.

Keeping in mind that we have panelists on opposite ends of the country, we propose the following times (PST) for our first call:

- Friday, December 7 at 10:30 a.m. or 1:00 p.m.;
- Monday, December 10 at 9:00 a.m. or 1:00 p.m.; or
- Tuesday, December 11 at 9:00 a.m.

Please let Thomas and I know what your availability is for this call. Also, prior to our call, please ruminate over the three tasks we must complete by December 17.

Very truly yours,

Roufeda S. Ebrahim

Planning call: Plenary: ABA Government Liaison meeting - January 14, 2019 -- Skype Meeting

Lisa Banks and I are honored to serve as your co-facilitators for the opening plenary session at the Monday, January 14, 2019 ABA Agency Government Liaison Meeting scheduled for 12:30 p.m. to 2 p.m. at the Madison Hotel, 1177 15th Street, NW, Washington DC. Folks will make formal introductions of all attendees around the room starting at noon.

While Lisa and I previously have facilitated programs with most of the leaders and/or have known most of you for many years, we would like to have a short planning call next week to further refine our opening session (proper order of opening remarks and suggested length of opening remarks, preferred topics, requested questions from the facilitators, etc.). Our session title is "2019 Priorities from the Agency Leaders and Updates on Interagency Coordination." We also would like to make sure there is significant time for interaction and conversation with the distinguished counsel in the room, which is the historical "view" of this meeting.

Based upon feedback from leaders at the EEOC, DOL Solicitor's Office and OFFCP on Friday, we are putting this time on the calendar.

Eric/Don and John, not sure if this date/time works for you. If you or your staff would like a separate short call with us, please let us know.

Subject: RE: Conference Call on Wed. 1/16/19 at 2:00pm PST -- Labor Panel for March 5, 2019 LACBA Symposium

Good evening,

A few points:

The agenda is nearly finalized and when it is, I can send it out to all of you. For now, here is the section of the agenda that applies to our session:

Fourth Plenary Session 2:45 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

New Rules: Labor Law under the Trump Board

In this two-part discussion, join Chairman Ring of the NLRB as he discusses significant changes in labor law under the Trump administration, followed by the Los Angeles Regional Directors, union, and management-side panelists who will share their views on the implications of those changes. With issues ranging from joint employer status, administrative rulemaking, work rules, and the spillover of protests and strikes to non-union workforces, learn practical pointers that both labor and employment law practitioners need to know.

Nicole Buffalano, Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP
William B. Cowen, National Labor Relations Board, Region 21
Kirill Penteshin, UNITE HERE Local 11
John F. Ring, National Labor Relations Board
Mori Rubin, National Labor Relations Board, Region 31

All of the materials compiled by our panel are due by Thursday, January 31, 2019. Thomas and I will cover this more during our call this Wednesday, but it means that if our group decides to show a PowerPoint, chart, or any outlines, then we need to submit those materials to the committee by that deadline. Part of the reason for this deadline is that (most) all materials will be supplied to the attendees electronically prior to the conference.

Also, after the symposium, the committee is having a casual, relaxing dinner for the speakers and planning committee. We hope you can all attend and celebrate with us once the hard work is over!

Lastly, soon, Thomas will send the call in number for our call this Wednesday at 2:00 pm.

Thank you,
Roufeda

Subject: Conference call and PowerPoint preparation -- Labor Panel for March 5, 2019 LACBA Symposium

Hello all and Happy New Year!

Hope everyone is well and enjoyed the holidays.

We are hoping to schedule a conference call next week – could you please e-mail me and Roufeda, and let us know of your availability on January 16, 17, and/or 18, 2019? We will use this call in order to discuss the format and content of a PowerPoint presentation for the labor panel at the March 5 symposium.

In advance of the conference call, we ask that everyone prepare an outline for the talking points that you will be able to contribute on the issues listed below in the panel description (as well as any additional topics that may be interesting to include). The outlines can be in the format of PowerPoint slides or simply in Word, and we can combine everything later into one version. Please also gather any materials such as case law, proposed rules, etc., as these will be sent to symposium participants.

As a reminder, here is the description of the panel:

"In this two-part discussion, join Chairman Ring of the National Labor Relations Board as he discusses significant changes in labor law under the Trump administration, followed by the Los Angeles Regional Directors, union, and management-side panelists discussing the implications of those changes. With issues ranging from joint employer status, administrative rulemaking, work rules, and the spillover of protests and strikes to non-union workforces, learn practical pointers that labor and employment law practitioners alike will want to know."

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Subject: LACBA Symposium: modification to our session

Good morning,

I am emailing to inform you that we have a slight modification to our session. Due to various concerns raised by the NLRB's Ethics department, we need to make a modification to our session so that Chairman Ring can still participate. We are splitting up the session so that Chairman Ring will start the session speaking alone for about 20-25 minutes with about five minutes of questions from the audience. Chairman Ring will then remove himself from the stage/room, and then outside of his presence, the remaining panelists (Mori, Bill, Nicole and Kirill) will speak for the time remaining. Other than this modification, all else will remain the same in terms of presentation subject matter, etc.

This is the session blurb we are considering that will address this change to the session:

"In this two-part discussion, join Chairman Ring of the National Labor Relations Board as he discusses significant changes in labor law under the Trump administration, followed by the Los Angeles Regional Directors, union, and management-side panelists discussing the implications of those changes. With issues ranging from joint employer status, administrative rulemaking, work rules, and the spillover of protests and strikes to non-union workforces, learn practical pointers that labor and employment law practitioners alike will want to know."

Please let me know as soon as possible if you have any concerns.

Yet another email, but we just received some important guidance from the committee that may be helpful to you when preparing your blurbs:

We need to be sure to incorporate practical pointers, and also keeping in mind that a big portion of the audience will be employment lawyers who do not practice labor law. The hope is that this program will attract a lot of labor lawyers to the Symposium, but we want to keep the employment lawyers interested too.

My apologies for the additional email, but I failed to mention the following - Please plan and prepare for this session to remain/be a “traditional labor law” session. The mention of overlap with employment law really is not our concern (at least at this time). Katy will manage that portion. Really, the purpose of identifying our session’s overlap with employment law is, in part, for advertising purposes (so that we can figure out how to make traditional labor law appeal to employment law practitioners).

Subject: LACBA Symposium: Tasks 1 and 2 (topics for discussion and session title)

All,

Great call this morning! We covered a lot of ground in such a short amount of time. Based on our discussion, here are some proposed titles for our session. Please feel free to make modifications to the below proposals and/or propose your own titles. Regardless, please let us know what title you prefer.

1. Labor in the Time of Trump
2. Labor in the Trump Era
3. Developments Under the Trump Board
4. The NLRB under Trump

Discussion topics we discussed during our call:

- Joint employer status (per Chairman Ring, this is a current hot topic and thus will serve as one of the pillar discussion points for our session)
- Administrative rule making (per Chairman Ring, this is a current hot topic and thus will serve as one of the pillar discussion points for our session)
- Per Chairman Ring, there may be developing topics between now and March 5, 2019. That said, we all agreed to keep some flexibility to include those topics in our session should they arise
- Who has the right to unionize (independent contractors vs. employees vs. agency workers) (PCC Structurals)

January 16, 2019 Continued

Wednesday

- This did not come up on the call, but misclassification of independent contractors could be an independent violation
- New organizing tactics
- Decline in R-case filings
- Voluntary agreements
- Strikes in non-union settings vs. union settings and impact on business
- Work rules under Boeing
- This did not come up on the call, but would the panelists like to discuss arbitration agreements (Epic Systems)?

These notes are not infallible so if we left anything out, please feel free to add it.

Per our discussion, by Wednesday, December 10, we agreed that everyone would write and submit a short 2-3 sentence blurb covering their talking points at the session. Once you submit your blurb, Thomas and I will do our best to combine them into one. Once we do that, we will send a draft to all of you for input before we finalize it and send it to the committee on/before December 17 for review/approval.

Very truly yours,

Good afternoon,

Panelists will submit their slides to the group by Friday, January 25. Our slides may include more subjects than what the panelists have time to present, but we will pare them down at our next session.

Our next conference call is scheduled for Thursday, January 31st at 2:00 p.m. PST. During that time, we will start with Chairman Ring who will give a run-down of his presentation (so-far); we do understand that there will be additions Chairman Ring makes to both the presentation and PowerPoint in February once additional Board decisions are released. Chairman Ring will leave the call and then the remaining panelists will assess which topics they reasonably have time left to present on, keeping in mind that we need to hold true to our panel's title and blurb because that is what the attendees are expecting. The dial-in information for that call is:

Subject: RE: Conference Call on Wed. 1/16/19 at 2:00pm PST -- Labor Panel for March 5,
2019 LACBA Symposium

Good evening,

A few points:

The agenda is nearly finalized and when it is, I can send it out to all of you. For now, here is the section of the agenda that applies to our session:

Fourth Plenary Session 2:45 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

New Rules: Labor Law under the Trump Board

In this two-part discussion, join Chairman Ring of the NLRB as he discusses significant changes in labor law under the Trump administration, followed by the Los Angeles Regional Directors, union, and management-side panelists who will share their views on the implications of those changes. With issues ranging from joint employer status, administrative rulemaking, work rules, and the spillover of protests and strikes to non-union workforces, learn practical pointers that both labor and employment law practitioners need to know.

Nicole Buffalano, Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP
William B. Cowen, National Labor Relations Board, Region 21
Kirill Penteshin, UNITE HERE Local 11
John F. Ring, National Labor Relations Board
Mori Rubin, National Labor Relations Board, Region 31

All of the materials compiled by our panel are due by Thursday, January 31, 2019. Thomas and I will cover this more during our call this Wednesday, but it means that if our group decides to show a PowerPoint, chart, or any outlines, then we need to submit those materials to the committee by that deadline. Part of the reason for this deadline is that (most) all materials will be supplied to the attendees electronically prior to the conference.

Also, after the symposium, the committee is having a casual, relaxing dinner for the speakers and planning committee. We hope you can all attend and celebrate with us once the hard work is over!

Lastly, soon, Thomas will send the call in number for our call this Wednesday at 2:00 pm.

Thank you,
Roufeda

Subject: Conference call and PowerPoint preparation -- Labor Panel for March 5, 2019 LACBA Symposium

Hello all and Happy New Year!

Hope everyone is well and enjoyed the holidays.

We are hoping to schedule a conference call next week – could you please e-mail me and Roufeda, and let us know of your availability on January 16, 17, and/or 18, 2019? We will use this call in order to discuss the format and content of a PowerPoint presentation for the labor panel at the March 5 symposium.

In advance of the conference call, we ask that everyone prepare an outline for the talking points that you will be able to contribute on the issues listed below in the panel description (as well as any additional topics that may be interesting to include). The outlines can be in the format of PowerPoint slides or simply in Word, and we can combine everything later into one version. Please also gather any materials such as case law, proposed rules, etc., as these will be sent to symposium participants.

As a reminder, here is the description of the panel:

"In this two-part discussion, join Chairman Ring of the National Labor Relations Board as he discusses significant changes in labor law under the Trump administration, followed by the Los Angeles Regional Directors, union, and management-side panelists discussing the implications of those changes. With issues ranging from joint employer status, administrative rulemaking, work rules, and the spillover of protests and strikes to non-union workforces, learn practical pointers that labor and employment law practitioners alike will want to know."

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Subject: LACBA Symposium: modification to our session

Good morning,

I am emailing to inform you that we have a slight modification to our session. Due to various concerns raised by the NLRB's Ethics department, we need to make a modification to our session so that Chairman Ring can still participate. We are splitting up the session so that Chairman Ring will start the session speaking alone for about 20-25 minutes with about five minutes of questions from the audience. Chairman Ring will then remove himself from the stage/room, and then outside of his presence, the remaining panelists (Mori, Bill, Nicole and Kirill) will speak for the time remaining. Other than this modification, all else will remain the same in terms of presentation subject matter, etc.

This is the session blurb we are considering that will address this change to the session:

"In this two-part discussion, join Chairman Ring of the National Labor Relations Board as he discusses significant changes in labor law under the Trump administration, followed by the Los Angeles Regional Directors, union, and management-side panelists discussing the implications of those changes. With issues ranging from joint employer status, administrative rulemaking, work rules, and the spillover of protests and strikes to non-union workforces, learn practical pointers that labor and employment law practitioners alike will want to know."

Please let me know as soon as possible if you have any concerns.

Thank you,
Roufeda

Yet another email, but we just received some important guidance from the committee that may be helpful to you when preparing your blurbs:

We need to be sure to incorporate practical pointers, and also keeping in mind that a big portion of the audience will be employment lawyers who do not practice labor law. The hope is that this program will attract a lot of labor lawyers to the Symposium, but we want to keep the employment lawyers interested too.

My apologies for the additional email, but I failed to mention the following - Please plan and prepare for this session to remain/be a “traditional labor law” session. The mention of overlap with employment law really is not our concern (at least at this time). Katy will manage that portion. Really, the purpose of identifying our session’s overlap with employment law is, in part, for advertising purposes (so that we can figure out how to make traditional labor law appeal to employment law practitioners).

All,

Great call this morning! We covered a lot of ground in such a short amount of time. Based on our discussion, here are some proposed titles for our session. Please feel free to make modifications to the below proposals and/or propose your own titles. Regardless, please let us know what title you prefer.

1. Labor in the Time of Trump
2. Labor in the Trump Era
3. Developments Under the Trump Board
4. The NLRB under Trump

Discussion topics we discussed during our call:

- Joint employer status (per Chairman Ring, this is a current hot topic and thus will serve as one of the pillar discussion points for our session)
- Administrative rule making (per Chairman Ring, this is a current hot topic and thus will serve as one of the pillar discussion points for our session)
- Per Chairman Ring, there may be developing topics between now and March 5, 2019. That said, we all agreed to keep some flexibility to include those topics in our session should they arise
- Who has the right to unionize (independent contractors vs. employees vs. agency workers) (PCC Structural's)
 - This did not come up on the call, but misclassification of independent contractors could be an independent violation
- New organizing tactics
- Decline in R-case filings
- Voluntary agreements
- Strikes in non-union settings vs. union settings and impact on business
- Work rules under Boeing
- This did not come up on the call, but would the panelists like to discuss arbitration agreements (Epic Systems)?

These notes are not infallible so if we left anything out, please feel free to add it.

Per our discussion, by Wednesday, December 10, we agreed that everyone would write and submit a short 2-3 sentence blurb covering their talking points at the session. Once you submit your blurb, Thomas and I will do our best to combine them into one. Once we do that, we will send a draft to all of you for input before we finalize it and send it to the committee on/before December 17 for review/approval.
